

Our Classroom News

Week of: February 24th - 28th

Read Across America Week!

- Monday: Toy Maker and Mystery Reader Day!
- Tuesday: Books From Another State.
- Wednesday: Drop Everything and Read.
- Thursday: Read Your Shirt Day.
- Friday: Dress Like A Book Character.

A Note From Ms. Engelhardt

Next week is Read Across America week. Each day is themed something different as noted in the box on the left. The class has earned a PJ and one toy or stuffy day. That will be happening on Wednesday March 4th. If you have any questions about next week please feel free to email me!

EngelhardtL@issaquah.wednet.edu

A Peek At What We Are Learning

Reading

We began making predictions based on what we have already read and asking questions along the way.

Writing

We began our new unit on realistic fiction, this week we focused on real problems that we experience and solutions to go with them.

Math

Reviewing the strategies for adding and subtracting within 20.

Science

Our new science unit will begin middle of march.

Social Studies

Wants and needs that we have and how they differ around the world.

Toymaker Reminder

Monday is our toymaker workshop, if you turned in the volunteer paper please arrive here to help set up at 9:15 with your student.

